FOREWORD

Chowan College was founded and chartered in 1848 by the Baptists of Eastern North Carolina and Virginia, who felt the urgent need of a school of higher education and liberal culture for their young women. They accordingly erected and furnished a beautiful and commodious brick building, four stories high, which stands as an honor to the liberality and artistic taste of its founders. Later, other buildings were added.

The following quotation from the Catalogue of 1853-54 expresses the purpose of the founders:

"It is established for holy purposes: to discipline mind; instrumentally, to sanctify mind; and then to direct its strengthened energies. The latter are regarded as of paramount importance, as transcendent talent, without moral culture, produces only evil. That system of education is, therefore, radically defective, which neglects the heart. The true system contemplates a symmetrical development of all the faculties—physical, intellectual, and moral—and has regard to the whole sum of our existence.

"Such a system we would have our own. . . . The institution is incorporated, and may be regarded as a permanent establishment where young ladies can complete the most extended course of studies."

The school began at once to supply, in an efficient manner, the great need of the Chowan section of the State. Able and well-trained teachers were attracted to its chairs. Students flocked to its halls. Its doors were not even closed during the War Between the States. This pioneer in the education of women became the boast and glory of the Baptists of the Old North State. It has graduated hundreds of women, many of whom have either become prominent themselves or have become the wives and mothers of men who have distinguished themselves in the history of our State and denomination.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

All applicants should be at least sixteen years of age, and must present a statement of honorable dismissal from the last school attended, including a testimonial of character from some responsible person, unless vouched for by some person connected with the institution.

Applications for admission should be made upon forms furnished for that purpose by the Registrar and should be accompanied by a deposit of $10 for the reservation of a room. The deposit is credited on the first payment but is not returnable unless withdrawn by July 25.

Students are admitted in either of the following ways:

- 1. By presenting the required entrance credits, fifteen units,* properly certified, from an accredited four-year high school.
- 2. By passing entrance examinations at Chowan College. examinations are required of every student who is not a graduate of an accredited high school or its equivalent.

Not less than two units (two years of any foreign language) will be accepted for entrance.

If a student admitted with fifteen units has some deficiencies in the requirements for admission to candidacy for a degree, she may make them up as indicated below. Such deficiencies must be removed before the student can be classified as a sophomore.

*A unit is a subject pursued through one school year of approximately thirty-six weeks, with not less than five forty-five minute recitations per week.

**A student deficient in one or two units of foreign language requirements for the A.B. degree may make up the deficiency by electing the initial course of a language not already studied in high school, or by taking Cicero and Vergil, if two units of Latin are offered for entrance credit.

OUTLINE OF ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

English

The following entrance requirements are in effect:

The study of English in school has two main objects, which should be considered of equal importance: (1) Command of correct and clear English, spoken and written; (2) ability to read with accuracy, intelligence, and appreciation, and the development of the habit of reading good literature with enjoyment.

GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION

The first object requires instruction in grammar and composition. English grammar should ordinarily be reviewed in the secondary school, and correct spelling and grammatical accuracy should be rigorously exacted in connection with all written work during the four years. The principles of English composition governing punctuation, the use of words, sentences and paragraphs should be thoroughly mastered, and practice in composition, oral as well as written, should extend throughout the secondary school period. Written exercises may well comprise letter-writing, narration, description, and easy exposition and argument. It is advisable that subjects for this work be taken from the student's personal experience, general knowledge, and studies other than English, as well as from her reading literature. Finally, special instruction in language and composition should be accompanied by concerted effort of teachers in all branches to cultivate in the student the habit of using good English in her recitations and various exercises, whether oral or written.

LITERATURE

The second object is sought by means of reading and study of a number of books from which may be framed a progressive course in literature. The student should be trained in reading aloud and should be encouraged to commit to memory notable passages both in verse and in prose. As an aid to literary appreciation, she is further advised to acquaint herself with the most important facts in the lives of the authors whose works she reads and with their place in literary history. She should read the books carefully, but her attention should not be so fixed upon details that she fails to appreciate the main purpose and charm of what she reads.

A few of these books should be read with special care, greater stress being laid upon form and style, the exact meaning of words and phrases, and the understanding of allusions.

A. BOOKS FOR READING

The books suggested for reading are arranged in the following groups, from each of which at least two selections are to be made, except that for any book in Group I a book from any other group may be substituted:

Group I. Classics in Translation: The Old Testament, at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther.

The Odyssey with the omission, if desired, of Books I-V, XV, and XVI.

The Eneid.

(The Odyssey, Iliad, and Eneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.)

Group II. Drama: Shakespeare, Merchant of Venice, A's You Like It, Julius Casar.

Group III. Prose Fiction: Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities; George Eliot, Silas Marner; Scott, Quentin Durward; Hawthorne, The House of Seven Gables.

Group IV. Essays, Biography, etc.: Addison and Steele, The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers; Irving, The Sketch Book (selections covering about 175 pages); Macaulay, Lord Clive; Parkman, The Oregon Trail.

Group V. Poetry: Tennyson, The Coming of Arthur, Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, The Passing of Arthur; Browning, Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Herve Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in a City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, The Pied Piper, "De Gustibus," Instans Tyrannus; Scott, The Lady of the Lake; Coleridge, The Ancient Mariner, and Arnold, Sohrab and Rustum.

B. BOOKS FOR STUDY

The books provided for study are arranged in four groups, from each of which one selection is to be made:

Group I. Shakespeare: Macbeth, Hamlet.

Group II. Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, and either Comus or Lycidas; Browning: Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Herve Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, The Pied Piper, "De Gustibus," Instans Tyrannus, One Word More.

Group III. Macaulay: Life of Johnson; Carlyle, Essay on Burns, with a brief selection from Burns' Poems; Arnold: Wordsworth, with a brief selection from Wordsworth's Poems.

Group IV. Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; a collection of orations, to include at least Washington's Farewell Address, Webster's First Bunker Hill Oration, and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

N.B.—The four masterpieces selected for careful study should take up the whole time devoted to literature in the eleventh grade.

3 Units.

Mathematics

- A. ELEMENTARY ALGEBRA. The four fundamental operations of rational algebraic expressions, factoring, highest common factor, lowest common multiple, complex fractions, the solution of equations of the first degree, both numerical and literal, containing one or more unknown quantities, problems depending upon linear equations, involution and evolution, radicals, including the extraction of the square root by polynomials and numbers, fractional exponents, surds and imaginaries, quadratic equations, problems depending upon quadratic equations, ratio and proportion, variation, arithmetical and geometrical progressions, binomial theorem for positive integral exponents. 2 Units.
- B. Plane Geometry. The subject as presented by any of the best textbooks, including the solution of numerous original exercises.

1 Unit.

C. Solid Geometry. Lines and planes in space, dihedral and polyhedral angles, projections, the regular solids, the spherical triangle, and the measurement of surfaces and solids.

1/2 Unit.

Latin

A. Grammar, inflections, and the essentials of syntax; Latin prose composition. The preparation should include an accurate knowledge of the form of the language; the ability to pronounce Latin with proper attention to the quantity of the syllables; the ability to translate easy Latin prose into good, idiomatic English; the ability to turn simple English sentences into Latin.

1 Unit.

- B. Cæsar, four books. Grammar and constant practice in writing easy Latin sentences illustrating rules of syntax.

  1 Unit.
- C. In addition to the requirements under A and B, the candidate for admission should have had continued training in Latin forms and syntax; she should have read six orations of Cicero, or an equivalent, with at least one exercise each week in turning into Latin connected English of simple style, and some training in translating easy Latin at sight.
- D. Continued training in Latin forms and syntax; at least six books of Virgil's Eneid, or an equivalent. It should include a knowledge of the rules of prosody and the ability to read hexameters metrically, also a review of prose syntax through systematic work in Latin writing.

1 Unit.

French

A. Careful drill in pronunciation; rudiments of grammar, including irregular verbs; constant practice in translating from English into French; the reading of from 150 to 200 pages of graduated texts.

1 Unit.

B. In addition to the above, this requires a continued and thorough study of grammar, including the uses of the subjunctive and infinitive; constant practice in the construction of sentences; the reading of from 300 to 350 pages of graduated texts.

1 Unit.

German

- A. Careful drill in pronunciation; rudiments of grammar, constant practice in translation from English into German; the reading of from 150 to 200 pages of graduated texts.

  1 Unit.
- B. In addition to the above, this requires continued work in advanced grammar; constant practice in the construction of sentences; the reading of from 250 to 300 pages of graduated texts.

  1 Unit.

History

- A. Ancient History, with special emphasis on the history of Greece and Rome to 800 A.D.
  - B. Mediæval History.
  - C. English History.
  - D. American History and Civil Government.

United States History studied in any of the grades below the high school will not be accepted.

The preparatory work in history should include parallel and illustrative readings, written outlines and maps.

Any one of the above courses in history may be offered to fulfill the requirements in history; others may be offered as elective. 1 Unit.

Science

Physical Geography. This course covers such important topics as the Land, the Ocean, the Atmosphere, the distribution of animals and plants brought about by difference in temperature and moisture; and the Physiography of the United States. Field work in neighboring localities is emphasized.

1/2 Unit.

Physiology. The preparation in Physiology should include a study of the nature of foods and their history in the body; the essential facts of digestion, absorption, circulation, secretion, excretion, and respiration; the motor, sensory and nervous functions; and the structure of the various organs by which the operations are performed. A notebook with careful outline drawings of the chief structures studied anatomically, together with the explanations of these drawings and a study of a good textbook are essentials.

1/2 Unit.

Physics. A course such as is contained in a good text in high school Physics. Credit in this course will be granted only when a notebook containing experiments is presented.

1 Unit.

CHEMISTRY. One unit may be offered when an original notebook is submitted, giving a record of individual work done in the laboratory. The student will be expected to have a knowledge of chemical principles, reactions and calculations.

BIOLOGY, BOTANY, OR ZOÖLOGY. One unit may be offered in any one of these sciences if the work has been based upon some standard high school textbook. A neatly kept notebook must also be presented.

Household Arts. For credit in cooking or sewing, the student is required to present a notebook with proper certification from the teacher. It must also be accompanied by a full statement of what the student has done in laboratory, and the laboratory notebook should also be presented for examination.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Students desiring credit on work done in other colleges should submit to the Dean or to the President at least a month before the opening of school, if possible: (1) a statement of honorable dismissal from the college previously attended, (2) an official statement of entrance units and statement of the secondary school or schools attended, (3) an official transcript of college credits, giving date of attendance, number of weeks of each course, the number of hours per week, descriptive title of course, and grades received, (4) a copy of the catalogues of the school for each year of attendance, (5) laboratory notebook in courses in science. Only work done in a college of recognized standing will be accepted without examination. A student will be allowed advanced credit, tentatively, but should her work during the first year at Chowan prove to be unsatisfactory, some or all of her credits may be cancelled.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

One hundred and twenty semester hours, exclusive of 4 hours of physical education or health, are required for graduation. Of this number the following are definitely required both for B.A. and B.S. degrees.

Before the end of the sophomore year the student should decide in which fields she is most interested and should select two of these as her major and minor, after consultation with her major professor. The major and minor consist of 42 semester hours of college work both for the B.A. and B.S. degrees.

The major consists of 24 semester hours in one subject and the minor 18, except in case of a modern language, when 18 hours may be counted as a major if two units in this language were offered for entrance. The minor must be properly related to the major group, and must be approved by the major professor and the Dean.

For the B.S. degree, the major is to be selected from the fields of Mathematics and the Sciences. If the minor is Science,

Physics I must be taken. For the major in Science, 12 hours of Mathematics are required for the B.S. degree.

For B.S. in Home Economics, subjects should be taken as outlined by the State Department of Education.

Semester Hours	Semester Hours
General or Household	Physics 2
Chemistry 6	Clothing (study, construction,
Organic Chemistry 6	renovation, textiles, and
Bacteriology and Biology 6	millinery)9

If the candidate for a degree expects to teach in high school, she should prepare herself to teach in two academic fields. The North Carolina State Department of Education suggests the following combinations:

- (a) English and Latin.
- (b) English and French.
- (c) Mathematics and Science.
- (d) History and one other field.

These suggested combinations may serve as a guide in the selection of the major and minor. The professional training should consist of at least 21 semester hours, including Educational Psychology, Methods in Secondary Education, Principles and Practice in Secondary Education, Materials, Methods of Instruction, and Directed Teaching in the two academic fields which the candidate elects to teach.

As much of the prescribed work as possible should be completed by the end of the sophomore year.

A new student coming to Chowan in her senior year must do a minimum of 24 semester hours in residence before she will be granted a degree.

SUMMER SCHOOL WORK

Students who wish to pursue courses in summer sessions of other schools to remove conditions or to reduce the time in residence for a degree, should consult the major professor and the heads of departments before making definite plans. Written approval of heads of departments must be obtained. For this purpose students should secure uniform cards from the office. These cards, properly indorsed, must be filed in the office of the Dean of the Faculty before the opening of summer school. Credit is given only for approved courses. Quality credits apply to grades made in summer session.

REGULATIONS REGARDING WORK

Twelve hours a week is regarded as a minimum for a student to carry. No student will be allowed to carry more than seventeen hours exclusive of Physical Education except upon permission of the faculty and an average of B the preceding semester.

All conditions acquired in college must be removed at the time specified for arrearage examination; otherwise they automatically become failures, and the course must be repeated in class for credit.

Credit is allowed for a completed course only.

Students must pass 80 per cent of their work and make an average of C on the work passed in order to represent the college in any capacity.

Students delinquent in two or more subjects are deprived of both date and down town privileges (except down town privilege once a week) until work is made up and grades are satisfactory.

Students who are reported delinquent in two subjects in any one month, or in the same subject in two successive months are debarred from week-end or other visits over-night, even though arrangements have been made in the office for week-ends to be spent at home, until work is made up and grades are satisfactory.

These regulations do not apply to those deficient because of ill health, until opportunity has been given for them to make up work, if they have obtained from the school nurse written testimony of their illness. Reports of deficiencies are sent to parents of girls at the end of the first and third quarters with requests that they cooperate with the faculty in improving the student's work.

No student is allowed to change her course of study in any way except by special permission from the Dean. A charge of $2.00 is made for each item of change after the first two weeks of a semester.

Physical training is required of all students unless physically disqualified, in which case a course in health is substituted.

The academic standing of a student is determined on the basis of quality grades or credits. Grades are represented by letters A, B, C, D, E, and F. Of these, A, B, C, and D represent passing grades; E represents a condition which must be removed by examination; F is a failure and can be removed only by repetition of the work in class.

A, B, and C carry quality credits. A gives three quality credits, B two, and C one, per semester hour. A represents approximately a grade of 93-100; B, 86-92; C, 78-85; D, 70-77; E, 60-69; F, below 60. One hundred and twenty semester hours plus 4 hours in physical education or health, and one hundred and twenty quality credits are required for graduation. (Physical education carries no quality credits.)

Twenty-four semester hours and twenty-four quality credits are required for sophomore standing. Fifty-six semester hours and fifty-six quality credits are required for junior standing, and ninety semester hours and ninety quality credits are required for senior standing. No quality credits are allowed on examinations for removing conditions.

No student is eligible to the privileges of a class until she has the required number of hours and of quality credits.

The work of the last semester of the senior year must be done in residence at Chowan College.

No student will be allowed more than 15 points in extracurricular activities. Points are evaluated as follows:

President	Student	Government	Association;	Editor	Chowanoka;
Manager Tea Room				8

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

BIBLE AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

PROFESSOR BURRELL

- 1. OLD TESTAMENT STUDIES. This course will begin with a short study of the historical and geographical setting, tracing the development of Hebrew customs, traditions and morals, which finally culminates in their crowning achievement, the contribution of a most remarkable religious literature and an ethical monotheism. One semester, three hours.
- 2. Comparative Religions. A candid study of the non-Christian religions of the world—first, a consideration of their origin, progress, prevalence, and influences; second, a comparison of their fundamental tenets with the principles of Christianity. The superiority of Christianity in meeting the needs of humanity is shown. One semester, three hours.
- 3. New Testament Studies. The purpose of this course is to study the background of the New Testament, an introduction to the books of the New Testament, an outline of the life of Christ, and the spread of Christianity. Special emphasis is placed on the political, social, and religious conditions of the times. One semester, three hours.

4. LIFE AND TEACHINGS OF CHRIST. A constructive study of the life and teachings of Jesus, beginning with the historical, political, social, and religious background of the times. Then the message of Christ is interpreted in terms of modern life and applied to the solving of the great problems of the day. One semester, three hours.

Courses will be taught as outlined, unless there should be a sufficient demand for a variation from the above order.

- 17. The Teaching of English. This course includes a study of the materials and methods of high school English, lesson planning, practice teaching, and observation. Required of Juniors and Seniors who expect to teach high school English. Second semester, three hours.

HISTORY AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

PROFESSOR HALSELL

- 1. European History (Medieval). This course is concerned chiefly with the study of the origin, development, and decline of the social, political, and economic institutions of the Middle Ages. Organized and detailed work is done on the church, the Holy Roman Empire, feudalism, and the various medieval States of Europe. Texts, parallel readings, notebooks, maps, outlines, and pictures. Required of freshmen. First semester, three hours.
- 2. European History (Modern). This course is a continuation of History I, from the Renaissance and Reformation to the present. The important movements of modern Europe, resulting in the Protestant Reformation, the French Revolution, and the expansion of Europe, are studied; included in these movements will be the rise of the nations of today, the constitutional and social development of various countries, and the problems presented to the people of the world of 1931. Texts, outlines, parallel readings, lectures, notebooks, maps, pictures, and papers. Required of Freshmen. Second semester, three hours.

- 3.-4. HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. In the study of the history of the United States a general survey of the origin and development of social, economic, and political history is made. The history of North Carolina is emphasized in the general field, and special work is done in paralleling national and state development. Texts, readings, notebooks, maps, lectures, outlines, papers, bibliographies. Both semesters, six hours.
- 5. Economics. A brief study is made in the examination of our present economic system, and explanations are sought for the phenomena discovered. Among the topics considered are: Specialization, large scale production, effects of machinery, financial organization, both private and public; and the relation of the government to economics. Texts, parallel readings, notebooks, lectures, outlines, diagrams and charts. First semester, three hours.
- 6.-7. Sociology. This course consists chiefly of an introduction to the science of Sociology as the study of society. Consideration will be given to the origin, nature, and development of social organization as conditioned by psychical and physical factors; the social institutions, such as property, church, and state; and the social groups, such as family, and neighborhood. Applications of the various sociological divisions are made to everyday life. Texts, parallel readings, lectures, outlines, diagrams, papers. Both semesters, six hours.
- 8. Government. A survey is made of Federal government and its problems, with application and reinforcement by present day illustrations. The history of the various political institutions is considered, and especially our contemporary organization. Texts, outlines, parallel readings, charts, diagrams, papers. 11. Teaching of History. The purpose of this course is to prepare the students for the teaching of history in high schools. Not only methods but also subject matter is included. The objectives of the history teacher and the methods by which these objectives are reached, as well as practice teaching under observation and criticism of the head of the department are carried out. Texts, lectures, observations, discussions, outlines, bibliographies, papers, practice teaching, parallel readings, notebooks. Text: Tryon—Teaching of History in Junior and Senior High Schools. Second semester, three hours. Required of History majors; elective for History minors.

Note: Courses 1 and 2, or 3-4 are prerequisite to all other courses.

HOME ECONOMICS

PROFESSOR VERNON

Foods and Cookery

- 1-2. Selection and Preparation of Foods. The first semester of this course constitutes a laboratory course in which a study of selection, care, composition, and preparation of foods is combined and coördinated with a study of their nutritive value and digestion. Food topics: Fruits, Beverages, Quick Breads, Cereals, Vegetables, Milk and Milk Products, Eggs, Meats, Fats, Cakes, and Desserts. Both semesters, six hours.
- 3. Experimental Cookery. The study and effects of different ingredients and relative proportions of ingredients; the effects of various methods of combining materials; the effect of change of temperature; a study of the economy of time and motion in combining materials; uses of different types of cooking apparatus. Each student is assigned special problems. One semester, three hours. (Laboratory fee.) Prerequisite, 1-2.
- 4. Principles of Nutrition. This is a general course in nutrition, intended for students entering with advanced standing in cooking but without work in nutrition, and for those majoring in other departments who desire nutrition without cooking. The work in this course will duplicate the study of nutrition given in course 1-2. Course includes basal metabolism. One semester, three hours.

Textiles and Clothing

5. Textiles. This course is required of all Home Economics students, and may be elected by any other student. The purpose of this course is to give the student that knowledge which will enable her to select intelligently those textile materials most commonly used. It includes: (1) a study of the historic development of the textile industry; (2) spinning and weaving and the effect of each upon the value of material; (3) cotton, wool, silk, linen, rayon, and certain unusual fibres; (4) the characteristics, uses, and cost of standard materials; (5) simple tests for identifying fibers. (Small laboratory fee.) One semester, three hours.

- 6.-7. ELEMENTARY CLOTHING AND DRESSMAKING. This course is planned for those who have had no work in Home Economics. It includes a study of: (1) the budget; (2) principles of clothing design; (3) the identification of staple fabrics; (4) the use of commercial patterns; (5) the use and care of the sewing machine; (6) the selection, construction, and care of typical garments of cotton, linen, rayon, silk, and wool; (7) the proper accessories. Both semesters, six hours.
- 8. Advanced Dressmaking and Designing. The purpose of this course is to give that knowledge which will make it possible for the student to plan and construct appropriate and becoming street and afternoon garments with and without the use of commercial patterns. It includes: (1) construction of wool and silk dresses; (2) coat suits; (3) coats or evening wraps; (4) evening dresses; (5) construction of hats for street wear. One semester, three hours. (Laboratory fee.) Prerequisites, courses 5 and 6-7.
- 9. PRINCIPLES OF ART AND DESIGN. A study of the fundamental art principles and color theories and their application through problems in art structure; planned with the objective of developing greater appreciation of good design and of beauty. One semester, three hours.
- 10. Costume Design. This course includes a study of the historic development of costume, the principles of clothing design, appropriate line, spacing, and color. A study of individual types and kinds of designs suited to each. One semester, three hours. Open to all students.

Home Administration

- 10. Child Care and Training. This course is designed especially for those students majoring in Home Economics, but is open to students of other departments. The purpose of this course is to give the student through study, observation, and understanding of the physical, moral, and mental life of the child, and to develop an appreciation for the child as a member of the family group. This involves a study of the responsibility of parenthood, physical care of infants and older children, psychology of childhood, the home as a social background, and modern methods and technique in the training of children. First semester, two hours.
- 11. Home Nursing. Practical training given in the care of the sick in the home; dealing with simple principles, recognition of symptoms, simple remedies for minor illnesses; the factors involved in the care of invalids and infants; preparation of foods and general home environment. Second semester, two hours.

- 12. House Planning and Interior Decoration. Brief study of the modern house, location, site, floor plan, heating, lighting, ventilation, plumbing, and water supply; study of each room as to convenience; special features as to color, decoration, and furnishing from the view point of general structure and finish; study of color harmony, period furniture, rugs, drapery, etc. One semester, three hours.
- 13. Home Management. This course is required of all Home Economics students, but is open to students of other departments. The purpose of the course is to develop an appreciation for the home, the ideals which should control in the adjustment of the home to changed social and economic conditions, civic responsibilities of the home, the organization and efficient handling of the home industries, household accounts and family budget, cleaning and care of household equipment and furnishings. First semester, two hours.
- 14. The Materials and Methods for Teaching Home Economics in Secondary Schools. The purpose of this course is to acquaint the student with the essentials for good Home Economics teaching in all types of secondary schools. It includes a study of (1) the development of Home Economics; (2) leadership in the work of Home Economics, both past and present; (3) the aim, organization, and content of courses of study; (4) relation of Home Economics to other subjects in high school curriculum; (5) planning and presentation of lessons; (6) necessary equipment; (7) texts, reference books, and magazines; (8) the place of the Home Economics teacher in the community; (9) practice teaching. Both semesters, six hours. (Not offered in 1930-31.)

PROFESSOR SCHAIBLE

- 1. College Algebra. A rapid review of the difficult parts of elementary algebra, a study of progressions, permutations, combinations, probability, determinants, graphs, logarithms, the binomial theorem, infinite series, and a brief introduction to theory of equations. First semester, three hours.
- 2. Plane Trigonometry. Solution of right triangles, oblique triangles with and without the use of logarithms, trigonometric identities, inverse functions, graphs of trigonometric functions, and practical problems. Second semester, three hours.
- 3. ANALYTIC GEOMETRY. A study of the straight line, circle, and other conic sections, polar coördinates, and a brief introduction to Analytic Geometry of Space. Open to students who have done satisfactory work in Courses 1 and 2. First semester, three hours.

- 4. Solid and Spherical Geometry. Students who have not studied this subject in high school and who wish to major in Mathematics should elect this course. Smith's Solid Geometry. One semester, three hours.
- 5.-6. CALCULUS. An elementary study of Calculus. Both semesters, six hours.
- 7. THEORY OF EQUATIONS. Prerequisites: Courses 5-6. Text: Dickson's First Course in Theory of Equations. One semester, three hours.
- 8. Solid Analytic Geometry. Prerequisites: 1, 2, 3 and 4. Text: Snyder and Sisam's Analytic Geometry of Space. One semester, three hours.
- 9. DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS. Elective for those students who have completed course 5-6. Text: Murray's Differential Equations. One semester, three hours.
- 10. College Geometry. A brief review of elementary geometry followed by a more extensive study of Euclidean Geometry than is possible in high school. Text: Altchiller-Court's College Geometry. One semester, three hours.
- 11. HISTORY OF MATHEMATICS. Ball's, Cajori's, and Smith's histories of mathematics are used as a basis of work. Lectures and outside readings. One semester, three hours.
- 12. Teaching of Secondary Mathematics. This course includes a study of the materials and methods of high school arithmetic, algebra, and geometry, including lesson planning, and practice teaching. The latest reports of the National Committee on Secondary Mathematics, yearbooks of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, textbooks, and other materials are used. Prescribed for Juniors and Seniors who expect to teach Mathematics in the high school. Second semester, three hours.

Note: Of the elective courses offered, only those will be taught for which there is sufficient demand.

PSYCHOLOGY AND EDUCATION

Professor Brown
Instructor Martin

PSYCHOLOGY

- 1.-2. General Psychology. A study of the fundamental principles and laws of Psychology, with reference both to scientific theory and practical application. This course is prerequisite to the other courses in Psychology and to the courses in Education. Both semesters, six hours.
- 3. Educational Psychology. Education is viewed in this course as a series of changes in individual pupils. A study will be made of the principles of psychology as they apply to the educative process. First semester, three hours.

- 4. Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence. In the psychology of childhood a study will be made of the original nature of the child and of his physical and mental development. In the psychology of adolescence the following topics will be treated: physiological development and classification; developing social attitudes; emotional development and control; the development of special abilities; and mental hygiene. One semester, three hours.
- 5. Advanced Educational Psychology. An advanced course dealing with the fundamental psychological principles which explain educational processes. The task of the course will be (a) to ascertain and to appraise critically the psychological principles underlying significant educational practices and (b) to apply to educational procedure the most acceptable theories. One semester, three hours.
- 6. Vocational Psychology and Character Analysis. A study of psychology as applied to occupational activities. Among the topics considered are the following: the traditional methods of vocational selection; the measurement of mental competence and of special aptitude; diagnosis of character and temperament; interests as vocational determinants; the school curriculum as a vocational test; educational occupations for women; psychographic methods. One semester, two hours.

EDUCATION

- 1. Educational Psychology. This course is identical with Psychology 3. Required of all students of Education. First semester, three hours.
- 2. Educational Measurement. A study of the place of measurement in education; selection and construction of tests and examinations; application of tests; scoring of tests; classification of pupils; practice tests; guidance of study, instruction, and supervision; diagnosis; educational, vocational, and social selection and guidance. Laboratory fee, $3.00. Second semester, three hours.
- 3. Advanced Educational Psychology. (Psychology 5.) One semester, three hours.
- 4. Vocational Psychology and Character Analysis. (Psychology 6.) One semester, two hours.
- 5. Mental Hygiene. This course deals with the hygiene of instruction. It considers such topics as the following: the hygiene of attitude; of performance; of classification; of the problem child; of school subjects; of study methods; of home and school difficulties. One semester, one hour.
- 6. HISTORY OF EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES. A study of the origin and development of American educational institutions; the various types of state systems; the social, religious, economic, and political factors that have determined the educational movements; the types of institutions established, their administration, support, curriculum, methods, and ideals. One semester, three hours.

- 7. Principles of Secondary Education. A consideration of such topics as the following: physical and mental characteristics of high school pupils; historical background of the present day high school; aims and functions of secondary education; articulation of secondary schools with elementary and higher institutions, etc. Required of all candidates for certificates. First semester, three hours.
- 8. Problems of Secondary Education. A course designed to bridge the gap between theory and practice in the field of education. By a series of problems it undertakes to afford practice in applying knowledge at the time it is being acquired. Each problem embodies a difficulty that actually has arisen in the school room. If the student can use his knowledge in efficiently dealing with these problems, the chances are that he will later use it in actual situations in the classroom. Required of all candidates for certificates. One semester, three hours.
- 9. OBSERVATION AND DIRECTED TEACHING IN THE HIGH SCHOOL. A course offering the student opportunity for observation and participation in the Secondary School. Observation and reports on a given number of recitations, also lesson plans and the actual teaching of a prescribed number of classes will be required according to plans of the State Department of Certification, conferences and programs to be arranged for students in the different teaching fields. Second semester, three hours.
- 10. HISTORY OF EDUCATION. A survey of the development of Western education from classical until modern times. One semester, three hours.
- 11. HISTORY OF MODERN EDUCATION. A consideration of the educational progress in Europe and the United States from the eighteenth century to the present. The following topics are stressed: the influence on education of the rise of democracy; the development of systems of education; the effect on the curriculum and method of the new conception of the educational process. One semester, three hours.
- 12. PSYCHOLOGY OF CHILDHOOD AND ADOLESCENCE. (Psychology 4.)
  One semester, three hours.
- 13-14. For the past five years, a course has been offered for the benefit of those teachers in the community who wish to renew or raise their certificates. In 1925-26, a course in Elementary Supervision was given; in 1926-27, a course in Abnormal Psychology, followed by a course in the Exceptional Child; in 1927-28, a course in Social Psychology, followed by a course in Educational Psychology; in 1928-29, a course in the Philosophy of Education; in 1929-30, a course in General Psychology, followed by one in Advanced Educational Psychology; in 1930-31, a course in Vocational Psychology and Character Analysis, followed by a course in Vocational Guidance. During the academic year of 1931-32, similar courses will be offered to meet the needs of those who apply for them. Two semesters, six hours.

Courses 4, 5, and 6 in Psychology, and 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, and 11 in Education are not given every year, but selection is made from them according to the need of students.

Courses in special methods are found under their respective departments.

Biology

- 1.-2. General Biology. A study of the general laws of life and the fundamental relationship of living things. The principal facts of the structure and functions of typical plants and animals are given, together with a discussion of general biological problems. Two lectures and one laboratory, both semesters, six hours.
- 3. Physiology. A study of the skeletal, muscular, digestive, circulatory, excretory, nervous, and reproductive systems. Two lectures, one laboratory. First semester, three hours.
- 4. Genetics and Eugenics. The course includes a study of the problems of heredity and variation, Mendelian Laws and their application, the meaning of heredity and its fundamental bearing on the future of the human race. Second semester, three hours.
- 5. Bacteriology. The study of bacteria, yeasts, and molds in the home. Two lectures and one laboratory. First semester, three hours.

Courses 4, 5 and 6 are not given every year, but alternate according to the need of students.

6. Teaching of Biology. Three lectures. One semester, three hours.

Chemistry

1.-2. General Chemistry. An introduction to the study of the fundamental laws of chemistry and history, occurrence, preparation, and properties of the principal non-metallic and metallic elements and their compounds. Three lectures and one laboratory. Both semesters, eight hours.

- 3. Organic Chemistry. A study of the Aliphatic Hydrocarbons, their derivatives, their carbohydrates, the proteins, and the Aromatic series. One lecture and two laboratory periods. First semester, three hours. Prerequisite, Chemistry 1-2.
- 4. CHEMISTRY OF FOODS. A study of digestive processes, and the composition, preservation, adulteration, and industrial production of foods. Three hours per week, first semester.
- 5. Teaching of Chemistry. Three lectures. One semester, three hours. Prerequisite, Chemistry 1-2.

Physics

- 1.-2. General Physics. A general survey of the fundamental principles of mechanics, heat, light, sound, magnetism, and electricity. Demonstrations, lectures, recitations, and quizzes are supplemented by individual laboratory work. Two hours recitations, two hours laboratory. Both semesters, eight hours.
- 3. Magnetism and Electricity. Prerequisites, Mathematics 1 and 2 and Physics 1-2. Lecture, recitation, and laboratory work. One semester, three hours.
- 4. Household Physics. The course covers the ground of Elementary Physics with illustrations, examples and applications taken largely from the home. The course is designed to help the girl of today to meet the problems due to appliances and processes in the modern home based upon physical laws. One laboratory period and two lectures. Second semester, three hours.
- 5. Heat. A descriptive course. Open to those majoring in Physics. One semester, three hours.
- 6. Teaching of Physics. Three lectures. One semester, three hours. Prerequisite, Physics 1-2.

Courses 3, 4, 5, and 6 alternate to meet the needs of students majoring or minoring in science and mathematics.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

MISS ULMER

MISS WILLEFORD

- 1.-2. Physical Training. Class drill and gymnasium work; fundamental exercises, marching tactics, folk games, class movements in rhythm. Two half-hour periods throughout the year. Required of Freshmen.
- 3.-4. Physical Training. Review and continuation of Course 1-2 in more advanced form, rhythmical balance movements, æsthetics, and outdoor sports. Two half-hour periods throughout the year. Required of Sophomores.

- 5.-6. Methods of teaching gymnastics, games for playgrounds, fancy marches, and drills. Two half-hour periods throughout the year. Required of Juniors.
- 7.-8. Normal Course in Athletics. This is a practical course. Careful instruction is given in playing and coaching sports, such as soccer, basketball, baseball, swimming, indoor baseball, and track. Everyone taking this course must coach all these different sports at some time during the year. Two half-hour periods throughout the year. Required of Seniors.
- 9. Health. This course is required of the students holding physicians' certificates stating that they are unable to take the regular physical education. The course consists of a study of the functions of the human body and the application of the laws regarding these functions. Health posters and charts are made during the year to emphasize the importance of the laws of health and their proper application. In suitable weather, the students of this course take short hikes.

GENERAL INFORMATION

LOCATION

Chowan College is located within the corporate limits of the town of Murfreesboro, N. C. The site, embracing a tract of fifty acres, is on a bluff about ninety feet high and about one mile from the Meherrin river. Three deep ravines surrounding the town afford ample drainage. The beautiful campus immediately in front of the main building, the winding walks, ornamented with fine shade trees, shrubbery, and flowers, and a circular driveway bordered by grand old pines together with the surrounding hills and valleys, suggestive of the Piedmont section, add greatly to the attractiveness of the place and furnish recreation grounds for faculty and students.

The College is within easy reach of its students. Those along the line of the Southern Railway or the Atlantic Coast Line, or lines connected with these, can come by way of these roads to Cofield, N. C., on the Chowan River, and thence by automobile to Murfreesboro. Students coming on the Seaboard Railway will come to Weldon or Conway, N. C.

The National Highway from Norfolk, Va., to Asheville, N. C., passes through Murfreesboro, N. C.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

The Administration Building, erected in 1851, is a beautiful four-story brick building. It has a very imposing appearance due to its massive columns and broad veranda, extending its entire length. This building is used principally for classrooms, offices, parlors, literary society halls, the infirmary, and dormitory rooms.

The East Building is a commodious brick building four stories high. It houses the kitchen, dining room, library, faculty rooms, and home economics sewing room.

The New Dormitory contains one of the most beautiful college auditoriums in the State, with a seating capacity of eight hundred, and a combination stage and gymnasium. This building houses dormitory rooms with new equipment, studios, practice rooms, the swimming pool, and the central heating plant.

The Science Building is a two-story frame building used by all science departments for class-room and laboratory work.

All the buildings, except the Science Building, are connected by arcades or corridors, making it extremely convenient for students in severe weather, since they are able to go from one building to another entirely under shelter. All these buildings are amply protected against fire, adequately equipped with fire escapes, and supplied with fire hose and extinguishers on every floor.

Steam heat makes all the buildings comfortable throughout the year.

A postoffice equipped with modern lock boxes is maintained by the College for the convenience of its professors and students. Mail is received and sent away three times daily; this makes the mail service as efficient as the city delivery. This branch of government work is in charge of one of the students.

BOOKSTORE

On the basement floor of the Administration Building, the College maintains a bookstore. Here all the college books and stationery are handled, as well as candies and toilet articles.

INFIRMARY

The College maintains on the third floor of the Administration Building an infirmary equipped with modern hospital beds. An all-time nurse is employed and has complete charge of this infirmary under the direction of the college physician.

This provision has been made for cases of temporary illness, which are treated by the college physician with no expense to the student, other than the medical fee. In case of serious and protracted illness, arrangements will be made according to circumstances and instructions of parents, who will be responsible for additional expense incurred.

Students too ill to go to dining room or to attend to the regular college duties are expected to go to the infirmary at once.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

The deportment of a Christian lady is the standard to which every student is expected to conform. All appropriate means are used to develop and confirm a sense of personal honor and sacred regard for truth, as upon these rests the best reliance for good conduct. A few plain and reasonable rules are prescribed, and each matriculate must pledge herself to obey them.

- 1. Occupants of rooms will be held responsible for the good order of their rooms, as well as for any damage or defacement they may sustain. Changes from one room to another may be allowed by the Dean of Women, but must not be made without her consent.
- 2. If a student destroy, deface, or in any way damage college property, or aid and abet others in so doing, she shall within twenty-four hours report the fact to the Dean of Women. Students will be charged pro rata for all damages not individually accounted for.
- 3. No clubs or societies shall be formed unless the Faculty, on application made, approve the design of such association, the rules by which it is proposed to be governed, and the hours of meeting.

In the observance of these rules and in all matters not especially mentioned, the deportment of a lady and a student is the standard to which every one is expected to conform. Her sense of honor is the main reliance, and her word in matters touching her own conduct may be called for at the discretion of the Dean or President. In matriculating students, the College reserves the right to require the immediate withdrawal of any student who is found to be undesirable.

RESIDENCE REGULATIONS

The supervision of the personal and social welfare of the student is in charge of the Dean of Women. Confidential correspondence concerning these matters is received by her. All absences from the College are registered in her office, and requests from parents relating to temporary absence from college duties should be addressed to her.

Only such restrictions are made as are necessary for the protection and advancement of the student.

The College appropriates to study, recreation, and rest the entire time of the students. Parents are asked to discourage visits home.

No permissions are granted students to spend the night in town except with near relatives or guardians.

The church of the parent's choice is attended by the student on Sunday morning. On Sunday evening the students of the College home attend services together.

Excuses for absences from Sunday school and church services will be granted by the Nurse only. Students are expected to remain for church after Sunday school.

Three unexcused absences from church, chapel or other college duties merit a week's restriction, and a second restriction for the same offense carries a double penalty.

All instructions in regard to the students and all requests of parents and guardians should be sent to the Dean of Women, subject to her approval.

All visitors, except guests invited by the administration, will be charged at the rate of one dollar per day, or 35 cents per meal.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance upon classes and chapel exercises is expected of all students.

- 1. Students may be excused from chapel exercises by permission of the Dean of Women only.
- 2. Three unexcused tardinesses at class shall count as one unexcused absence, the excuse to be passed upon by the instructor.
- 3. Absences from classes immediately before or after holidays shall be counted as double unexcused absences.
- 4. A weekly report of absences shall be made to the registrar by the instructor. Each student is held responsible for keeping herself informed concerning her attendance record.

- 5. Semester reports sent to parents or guardians shall contain the number of excused and unexcused absences of students from chapel, classes, and other college duties.
- 6. Five points shall be deducted from the final grade for each unexcused absence from class.
- 7. No credit will be given for a course from which a student has more than three unexcused absences during a semester. Four absences will be allowed from a class if such absences are due to the student's being away from the college in some representative capacity. Absences due to sickness will be excused upon presentation of a physician's certificate or a written statement from the college nurse. In all cases of absence for any cause whatsoever, a student will be held responsible for the work which the class has done in her absence, and may be required to take special examination on such work.
- 8. Any debatable question concerning the above regulations may be referred to the faculty for consideration not later than two days after return to classes.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

A religious atmosphere pervades the College, and the spiritual welfare of the students is one of the primary considerations. It is the purpose of the College to maintain high ideals of Christian life and devotion, so that students may be surrounded with conditions favorable to the development of spiritual life and service. This purpose pervades every department of instruction and activity. An effort is made to develop a deeper spiritual life, to create a desire for service, and to train for active Christian work.

To this end the various organizations are given a prominent place in the College activities. Practically all the girls belong to the B. Y. P. U. and Y. W. A. Under the auspices of the Y. W. A. are the mission study classes and Evening Watch, which meets just after supper. In addition to these, there is a Student Volunteer Band for Foreign Missions and an associate band for work in the Home Field. These hold Morning and Evening Watch. A B.S.U. Council has general oversight of college religious life.

Pastors of the West Chowan Association make monthly visits to the College and conduct chapel services. Students are required to attend church services and Sunday school.

SOCIAL LIFE

Very pleasant social life exists among the students. The faculty regards this of the utmost importance, and makes ample provision and regulation for it.

The two literary societies give an annual reception to the student body and faculty. The B. Y. P. U.'s and the Y. W. A. give frequent socials to their members.

The literary clubs of the different departments of the College hold frequent and enjoyable gatherings and luncheons.

The Athletic Association provides out-of-door sports and hikes.

A picnic is given to students and faculty, particularly for new students at the beginning of each year.

A banquet is given by the Junior Class to the Senior Class in April or May each year.

MEDALS

The following medals are awarded annually:

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Association enacts and enforces the laws for the government of its members, according to the constitution and by-laws framed and adopted by the students and Executive Board and approved by the faculty. The organization elects its own officers, who, with a representative from each class, form the Student Council. The Council meets every week to enforce rules and consider business of the association pertaining to the life in the residence halls and on the campus. While the enforcement of laws is in the hands of the Council, the sense of personal responsibility is shared by all members of the association, thereby broadening the student's education by developing self-control, self-direction, and due regard for the comfort and rights of others.

THE BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

This organization unifies and correlates the work of all the unit organizations of Baptist students under the leadership of the executive body—the Baptist Student Union Council. This Council brings together the leaders of the different phases of religious life on the campus in order to plan and direct and stimulate the various activities. Through unification and correlation such as this organization affords, the life of each unit organization is intensified, benefited. The aim of the B. S. U. is to interest the students on the campus in striving to live up to the ideals set by Christ. The unit organizations of the College community under the leadership of the B. S. U. Council are the means to the accomplishment of that aim. The B. S. U. links the campus definitely with the organizations of the church. The organizations included in the B. S. U. of Chowan are: B. Y. P. U., Y. W. A., Sunday School, Volunteer and Life Service Bands.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The purpose of this organization is to develop a symmetrical Christian young womanhood; to bind together the young women of the College for world-wide service for Christ. This is accomplished through the monthly meetings, Mission Study Classes, and Evening Watch.

B. Y. P. U.

The Mattie Macon Norman, Nell Lawrence, Eunice Mc-Dowell, and Edwards B. Y. P. U.'s aim at two definite and distinct phases of activity: (1) to train the individual to be a more efficient worker for Christ during and after her college career; (2) to promote the highest type of womanhood.

All four unions are actively engaged in extension work. Demonstrations are given in connection with much personal service.

Study courses are held each year, so the motto, "We study that we may serve," is practiced. The clarion call is, "Expect great things from God; undertake great things for Him."

STUDENT VOLUNTEER AND LIFE-SERVICE BANDS

The Student Volunteer Band is made up of those students who have declared their purpose of becoming foreign missionaries. This band is not recognized as a campus activity, but its aim is to promote among its members fellowship, prayer and mutual strengthening of purpose. Working hand in hand with the Volunteer group is the Life-Service Band, which is composed of students called to do definite service in the home land. Morning Watch is held under the auspices of these bands.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association is an organization composed of all the students of the College. Regular meetings are held twice a month, at which questions pertaining to the various college sports and physical education in general are discussed. The purpose of the organization is to promote intelligent interest in the different sports, including soccer, basketball, baseball, tennis, swimming, hiking and track; to develop physical and mental vigor, and to encourage a spirit of fellowship and good sportsmanship among the students.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The two literary societies, the Alathenian and the Lucalian, have as their ultimate aim the development of the individual in public speaking. The programs consist of criticisms of authors, reviews of operas, studies of famous artists, and debates.

An inter-society debate is held each year. To this end, the Thursday nearest the 22nd of February has been designated as Society Day, to be observed as a holiday. The two societies will plan all programs, and the debate will be held in the evening as the main feature of the day. The societies meet on the second and fourth Thursdays in each month.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Lucalian and Alathenian Literary Societies sponsor The Chowanian, a college newspaper published fortnightly during the school year. The editorial staff is composed of the students registered in the college class in journalism, with additional reporters from the various college organizations.

The Senior class issues The Chowanoka, a college annual reflecting all phases of college life.

The Student Government Association publishes annually a handbook containing the constitution and by-laws of the organization.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Français holds frequent meetings during the year as auxiliary work to the French Department. The club is open to all students who have completed their first year in French.

After the program given by the students, games, conversation, and singing are conducted in French. The Cercle Français proposes to present two plays in French each year. The club offers the opportunity of acquainting the students with the games, songs, and customs of the French people. It is the purpose of the club to develop an interest in the literature of France, in the life of the French, and in speaking French.

THE CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club is designed to acquaint the students in the Latin department as intimately as possible with the cultural value of Latin, and with the language, customs, and life of the Romans.

THE WRITERS' CLUB

The Writers' Club, which is conducted by the head of the English department, has no definite form. It is designed to encourage voluntary writing, and any teacher or student who will present a poem, short story, essay, play, or other type of literature which she has written, is privileged to attend a meeting. No person may attend a session of the Club unless she makes a contribution to it. The Club meets twice each month.

BUREAU OF APPOINTMENTS

The College maintains an organization which assists its students and graduates in obtaining desirable employment in various fields. The bureau offers its services to former students free of charge and undertakes to coöperate with them in every possible way. For further information communicate with the Chairman of the Appointment Bureau.

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

The Alumnæ Association was organized in 1911 with the ideal of striving to advance the cause of Christian education. This association forms a strong and vital link between the College and its graduates and non-graduates. It is one of the most active and enthusiastic organizations connected with the institution. "Home-Coming Day" with its annual meeting is a feature of Commencement.

The first active work of the association was the organization of Chowan Clubs in the various communities of the Chowan Associations. Through the efforts of these clubs, money was raised for the purchase of seats in the old auditorium.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is composed of students enrolled in the home economics courses. Regular meetings are held once a month. The club endeavors to bring together the various groups studying home economics; to develop professional spirit and coöperation among the members; to keep in touch with the current topics in the home economics world; to bring students in closer touch with the greater home economics organizations and activities in state and nation; to provide opportunities for recreation and social contact.

DINING ROOM CLUB

The self-help students who serve in the dining room keep up fine esprit de corps by means of a club which has for its motto, "Service with a smile." The club meets monthly for programs treating phases of their work in the dining room, for fun, and for studies of literary value. It is sponsored by Mrs. Mattie Taylor, College Dietitian.

LIBRARY FUND

In 1922, the Alumnæ Association inaugurated a movement to increase the number of volumes in the library to six thousand, and to establish a permanent endowment fund of fifteen thousand dollars, so that the library might be able each year to grow normally without other funds.

The library now contains 8,900 volumes.

Recently memorial tablets by Mrs. R. P. Thomas and daughter, Mary, Cofield, N. C., Mrs. C. E. Grandy, Hickory, Virginia, and Mr. Harper Sheppard, Hanover, Pennsylvania, have been placed marking certain sections of the library.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOAN FUNDS

Interested friends of the College have made available each year a number of scholarships and loan funds to be awarded worthy students. For information in regard to these matters write the President.

LOAN FUNDS

An interesting and significant gift was made to the College in November, 1911. A former student of the College, who had once received financial aid at school from Miss Fannie Knight, a Chowan alumna and missionary to China, is the generous founder of the fund. Becoming interested in the progress of the College, and remembering gratefully her friend, this former student has given five hundred dollars to establish a loan fund, called The Fannie Knight Loan Fund, for the benefit of girls who are unable to go to school without this help.

The Masonic Lodge has set apart a certain amount of its funds to be distributed among different colleges of the State. Chowan College shares in this distribution. Several girls have been helped and are being helped by this fund.

The Scottish Rite Masons have set aside a loan fund of one hundred dollars to aid a worthy girl in Chowan College. This fund is to be designated The Masonic Theater Educational Loan Fund of New Bern.

SCHOLARSHIPS

J. W. Bailey has given a scholarship in memory of his mother, Annie S. Bailey, in the sum of one hundred dollars a year, payable in fifty-dollar installments September 1st and January 1st. This scholarship is to be awarded "to some girl, who, but for its assistance, could not enjoy the privileges of a college education."

The Kiwanis Club offers one scholarship to a girl from each of the four counties comprising its membership, namely: Hertford, Northampton, Bertie and Gates. These scholarships are awarded to girls who would otherwise be unable to attend college.

The W. M. U.'s of Northampton and Hertford Counties offer two scholarships, and the W. M. U. of Bertie County offers two.

Four scholarships were endowed during the 1926 drive for endowment. Each donor contributing as much as $2,000 endows a scholarship. These scholarships are awarded annually to worthy girls who would be unable otherwise to attend college. These endowed scholarships are:

- 1. The Thomas Buckner Wynn Endowed Scholarship, given by Thomas B. Wynn, Murfreesboro, N. C., a loyal friend and supporter.
- 2. The D. E. Williams Endowed Scholarship, given by Mrs. D. E. Williams and Mrs. D. P. Medlin, South Mills, N. C., in honor of their husband and father, D. E. Williams, former Trustee and friend of Chowan.
  - 3. The Julia Nowell Mitchell Memorial Scholarship, given by Dr. W. Mitchell in memory of his wife, who was graduated in the class of 1892 (and who died in 1926), to be awarded annually to a worthy girl completing the freshman year with an average of not less than 85 and needing assistance to complete her college course.
  - 4. The Maude O. Sawyer Scholarship, given by Mr. Alf Sawyer, Belcross, N. C., in honor of his daughter, Maude, a member of the class of 1916, who later met a tragic death.

A WORD TO SELF-HELP STUDENTS

Chowan College is doing, and has been doing since its founding, a great deal for students unable to finance wholly their own way. This is done through such positions as waiting on tables in dining room, acting as college postmistress, managing the college bookstore, serving as music monitor, assisting the librarian, etc. In addition to the aforementioned, Chowan helps worthy students by scholarships. Applications for help should be made to the President as early as convenient, since the self-help positions are awarded according to the order of the applications received and according to the merits and needs of the cases.

Self-help positions should not be sought by students whose parents or guardians are able to bear their expenses.

Students who ask the college for assistance are requested to help themselves as much as possible by making application for and reserving the less expensive rooms. The college is always ready and willing to help those who help themselves. Students awarded these self-help positions are expected to fill them to the satisfaction of the departments under which they work.

If such work is not done satisfactorily, positions may be declared vacant and awarded to other students.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS

MUSIC, EXPRESSION, AND BUSINESS

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

INEZ MATTHEWS, Director, Piano, Theoretical Subjects

MARK J. BENYUNES, Violin, Instrumental Ensemble

FORREST DELANO, Voice, Vocal Ensemble, Public School Music, Theoretical Subjects

THEORETICAL COURSES

Solfeggio. The course in Solfeggio (sight singing) is a systematic and thorough drill in all forms of rhythm, melodic progressions, keys, and note values. Both semesters, four hours.

Appreciation. Musical Appreciation comprises a thorough investigation of all the basic elements in the entire field of music, including a critical study of the structure, possibilities and combination of all vocal and instrumental groups. No previous knowledge of music is necessary to enter the class in Appreciation. Many students without the necessary time to devote to special study of music find in this class a wealth of practical information which greatly enhances their understanding of musical art and appreciation of artistic singing and playing. Both semesters, two hours.

THEORY I. This course embraces the study of notation, major and minor scales, harmonic intervals, rhythms, relative values of notes and rests, and simple triads. Writing out these theoretical values from dictation is known as Ear Training. Both semesters, four hours.

THEORY II. Theory II follows Theory I and includes the study of elementary acoustics, orchestral instruments, and the rudiments of music form. Victrola records are occasionally used to illustrate the subject under consideration. Both semesters, two hours.

Analysis. Analysis is a critical study of the harmonic material and structural elements which enter into all forms of musical composition. Representative works of the old masters are used for observation and analysis. Both semesters, four hours.

HISTORY OF MUSIC. This subject is a historical account of the development of the art of music from the most remote ages to the present time. The more modern history is largely biographical since the development of the art is so closely related to individual achievement. Both semesters, four hours.

HARMONY I. This subject comprises the study of all triad structure and relations, with positions and inversions; the dominant seventh chord, inversions and resolutions; and licenses in chord progression. Both semesters, four hours.

HARMONY II. Harmony II is a continuation of Harmony I, beginning with dissonant harmonies and progressing into modulation, unessential harmonies, anticipations, suspensions, and chromatically altered chords. Both semesters, four hours.

COUNTERPOINT. Counterpoint is the art of melodic writing, florid structure, and the combining of two or more melodies into one complete unit. Both semesters, four hours.

Penagogy. Pedagogy is a normal course designed for those who expect to teach, and is a most valuable aid. The subject includes a synthetical study of the principles involved in building up a facile technique in Voice, Piano or Violin. Careful notation is made of the assembling and arranging of teaching materials. During the second semester the student is required to teach, without fee, two pupils, provided by the department, which teaching will be under the supervision of the professor in that particular department. Both semesters, two hours.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC

SIGHT SINGING EAR TRAINING

METHODS

Care and development of the child voice; presentation of Rote Songs; Observation songs; Courses of study and lesson plans for all grades; Folk dances and singing games; Practice teaching; Conducting.

Besides the course in Methods, the candidates must have completed 90 semester hours including the following subjects:

Voice, two years.

Piano, two years.

Appreciation, one year.

Theory I, one year.

Theory II, one year.

History of Music, one year.

Harmony, one year.

Ensemble, one year.

English, two years.

History, one year.

Mathematics, one year.

Psychology, one year.

Education, two years.

Text: Progressive Public School Music Series, Books I, II, III.

This course is indispensable to students expecting to teach in North Carolina schools, since public school music is a state requirement for our public schools.

FRESHMAN YEAR. Exercises in breathing, tone placing, and the proper formation of vowels. Selections from Delle Sedie's "Complete Method of Singing" or from Spicker's "Masterpieces of Vocalization"; first fifteen of Concone's "Fifty Lessons for the Voice"; simple songs. It is the aim in this elementary instruction to lay the foundation which will enable the singer not only to read music but to produce pure and musical tones easily and effectively.

SOPHOMORE YEAR. Exercises in vocalization for the development of technique; continuation of Delle Sedie's "Complete Method of Singing," or Spicker's "Masterpieces of Vocalization"; first thirty of Concone's "Fifty Lessons for the Voice"; study of songs from the best American and foreign song writers.

JUNIOR YEAR. Delle Sedie's "Complete Method of Singing" completed, and Concone's "Fifty Lessons for the Voice" completed. Preparation of a repertoire of songs and simple arias from standard works of the masters.

Senior Year. Exercises in vocalization for the development of tone and technique; the study of oratorio and opera, together with the best of the song literature in the English, French, Italian, and German languages. Church and Concert Singing. Senior Recital.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Voice, Piano, Violin

The candidate must complete the following subjects:

Senior Grade in Major Subject.

Ninety semester hours, including theoretical subjects and prescribed literary subjects.

Theory I, one year.

Theory II, one year.

Pedagogy, one year.

Appreciation, one year.

Analysis, one year.

History of Music, one year.

Counterpoint, one year.

Harmony, two years.

Public Graduating recital.

Piano graduates are required to complete Freshman Voice.

Voice and Violin graduates are required to complete Sophomore Piano.

Voice graduates are required to complete three years of modern foreign language—French, Spanish or German.

All candidates for graduation are required to complete their work to the full satisfaction of the teachers in charge.

Two lessons each week is considered regular work in Voice, Piano, or Violin. Fewer than that number each week will not be credited towards the completion of any regular course in music.

CLUBS AND RECITALS

THE GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is a student organization, with officers from its own membership, and is under the direction of the teacher of vocal ensemble. Membership is open to any girl with a fair voice and ear who desires to take training. Rehearsals are held twice each week from the beginning of the school season till the time of the spring tours. Members must be prompt and regular in attendance, otherwise their names will be dropped. There are no requirements except a library fee of $1.25, payable at the time of entering the club, which pays for all music used through the season. Selection of those who will make the tours is conducted just before the Christmas holidays.

THE TREBLE CLEF CLUB

The Treble Clef Club is composed of students from all departments of music in the college. It meets once a month to study the life and works of the different composers. Each member should attend the meetings, as she is expected to appear on the program during the school year. The club, which is under the supervision of the Piano and Voice teachers, invites others who may wish to attend the meetings.

THE ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra Club welcomes into its membership all girls who are able to play some worthwhile instrument. This is a student organization, under the supervision and training of the teacher of violin. There are many occasions for the orchestra to appear during the school year, and many girls avail themselves of the opportunity of playing with this group of performers. Rehearsals are held twice each week.

STUDENT RECITALS

Students in every department of music are expected to appear in recital frequently through the season. Singing and playing in public is a most valuable aid to the discovery of the student's capabilities and temperament for the artistic in music.

DEPARTMENT OF EXPRESSION

MISS ULMER

1. Principles of training. Correct method of breathing, voice training, breath control. Fundamentals of speech. Elementary pantomime. Harmonic training to secure freedom and poise. Literary interpretation: reading, conversation, short narratives, monologues, and poems. Private recitals.

- 2. The study of fundamentals continued, including voice training. The development of imagination and dramatic instinct through the study of modern fairy tales, nature studies, legendary and historical stories. Platform readings, interpretation of short stories, monologues, lyrics, scenes from plays; training in comedies. Criticism. Public recitals.
- 3. Manifestative and representative pantomime. The study of correct tone production and improvement of speech; diction. Pantomimic training; dramatic thinking. The study of one-act plays for the purpose of platform interpretation, conversation and criticism; the study of epic and dramatic poetry; narrative and descriptive studies for vocal interpretation. Original work in arranging material for readings. Dramatic rehearsals. Public recitals.
- 4. Advanced voice and harmonic training, using technique and psychic methods; dramatic thinking; vocal interpretation of literature, especially Shakespeare, Browning, and the Bible. Advanced platform art; dramatic construction; Shakespearean tragedies studied and interpreted. Abridgement of narrative and plays; poetic interpretation; impersonations; training in plays; stage art; diction; criticism; dramatic rehearsals; public recitals.
- 5. Spoken English and General Culture Class. One hour per week. This class is open to all students. (See terms and expenses.) Its purpose is to train students in speech—ease and clearness in enunciation and articulation,—to cultivate a pleasant speaking voice, develop poise, ease, graceful bearing, and practical experience in Public Speaking, and to stimulate an appreciation of the best in literature.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club is composed of all students of the Department of Expression. Its aim is to promote social fellowship among the students and to enable them to gain some degree of ease and poise in social intercourse. A program is prepared and presented by members of the club at each regular meeting. This fosters interest in the study of the drama and an appreciation of literature.

At least one public dramatic performance must be presented during the college year. .

Membership is open to all college students by "try-outs." This opportunity is offered once each semester. Those who pass the requirements are admitted.

The club is an effective auxiliary to the department, and also provides pleasant social intercourse.

The following plays have been presented during the year: Little Women, a dramatization of Louisa M. Alcott's story,

in four acts	Marion DeForest
The Cricket on the Hearth, a dramatization of	Charles Dickens'
story, in three acts	Albert Smith
Christmas Magic, a one-act comedy	Agnes Beryl Curtis
The Romantic Age, in three acts	A'. A. Milne
Mary Rose, in three acts	J. M. Barrie
Cinderella Married, a one-act comedy
Grandma Pulls the String, a one-act comedy	DeLano and Carb

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Residents of Murfreesboro and the community are received as students of individual teachers of Piano, Voice, Violin, and Expression. Students are not admitted to the theoretical studies of these subjects or to College classes without the 15 units necessary for graduation from high school.

CERTIFICATES IN SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS

Students who complete the courses in Piano, Voice, Violin, Expression, and Public School Music, including the required theoretical courses, together with 90 semester hours—quality as well as quantity credit in college—are awarded special certificates in these departments upon recommendation of their instructors. The college subjects required are the same as those required for the A.B. degree.

It is recommended that students desiring certificates in these subjects take four years for the completion of the course. This can ordinarily be done along with the work for the A.B. degree, provided students are sufficiently advanced in these special subjects when they enter college.

Candidates for certificates in all the special subjects are required to give a public recital.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

ADDIE MAE COOK

Chowan College offers courses in bookkeeping, shorthand, and typewriting. These courses are being offered to meet the demands of the business world, and to meet the needs of the young women who are not only expecting to teach, but to enter other professions as well—for they consider a knowledge of business courses an entering wedge to nearly all professions.

SHORTHAND

In the course in shorthand, the Gregg System is used.

The first semester is given over to the mastery of the principles of shorthand. The second semester's work deals with phrase writing and dictation. Three hours weekly throughout the year.

TYPEWRITING

Special attention is given to accuracy, neatness, and speed.

The first semester is devoted entirely to drills to thoroughly familiarize the student with the keyboard and the latest methods of typing.

The second semester's work is devoted largely to writing letters, copying legal documents, and rough draft copies. Special attention is paid here to the building up of speed. Remington typewriters are used. One hour daily throughout the year.

BOOKKEEPING

The bookkeeping course includes practice in applying principles involved in recording transactions, posting, proving cash, taking trial balance, making a balance sheet, and closing a ledger. It also includes the handling of checks and check books, notes, drafts, invoices, receipts and other business papers. The Twentieth Century Bookkeeping, double entry system is taught. Three hours weekly throughout the year.
